MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 11, 1-97

TERRORIZED BY A WILD MAN .- A wild man with long, matted hair at d a shaggy red beard, who carries a I nife and a club, and evidently hides in some of the caves along the Schuylkill near Phoenixville, Pa., has been terrorizing women and children at night in the less frequented streets of Phoenixville re-een ly.

His boldest attack was upon 12 year old Daniel Sweeney a night or two ago. He rushed upon the lad in the darkness and felled him to the ground with a murderous blow upon the head; then kicked him, and finally, with a de-m n's yell, fled and escaped. The lat was picked up, badly injured, but he s on recovered consciousness and told of his weird experience Friday.

Early Saturday morning the same fiendish fellow rushed at Night Watch man Schantz at the Black Rock tun nel, smashed his signal lantern to frag ments, and was in turn knocked reel ing into the bushes along the canal, on ly to make his escape again. He has all the cunning as well as the ferocity of a maniac, and the women and child ren are staying indoors of nights now around those parts.

A few weeks ago the editor was tak en with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertise-ment of Chamberlain's Cough R medy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to maka first trial of the medicine. To say it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy at d permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to snyone afficied with a cough or cold in any form.—The Ban ner of Liberty, Libertytown, Md The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J.
